

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY JULY 13 1894.

NO. 38

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mrs. John C. Crawford, of San Antonio, Texas, is visiting Mr. J. M. Crawford's family near Brodhead.

—Mr. Elisha Proctor, who lives in the Glades, died on the night of the 9th and was buried on Thursday of this week.

—The Rev. E. J. Snodgrass delivered a lecture at the Christian church a few nights since. His subject was Japan and Missions. He is a good talker.

—I am requested to say to the teachers of our county that the Teachers Institute will be held at Mt. Vernon, beginning Monday, the 16th inst.

—Bro. Pike will preach at the Baptist church next Saturday evening at 3 o'clock and Sunday at 11 and at Chestnut school-house at 3 Sunday afternoon.

—Mrs. Mattie Carter is spending the week in Ohio visiting friends and reports a fine time. Mr. G. T. McRoberts, who has been visiting relatives in Lincoln and Garrard counties, has returned home again. Miss Florelle Brown and Mrs. Georgie Rice, of Mt. Vernon, came down on the noon train Tuesday and went out to see Mrs. Margaret Collyer, their grandmother. Mr. Vick Owens is furnishing our operator plenty of gas this week, but it does not cost Vick much. Mr. A. E. Albright had a pleasant drive out into the Big Glades Tuesday, but it was those that he accompanied that made the trip so pleasant to him. Mr. I. N. Newland is thought to be improving in health.

—Last Saturday evening a stranger appeared in town, who turned out to be a Mr. John S. Wilson, of Bardstown, and managing editor of the Nelson County Record. Sunday night he and Miss Lillian Woodall, one of Brodhead's belles, eloped to Mt. Vernon and when they passed back on the noon train Monday, they were sitting low in their seats and had nothing to say to anyone. It was Mr. Wilson's first visit to our town and I understand that he had never met the young lady but once before last Saturday evening. Miss Lillian was a fine little lady and one of our best teachers. She is worthy of a first class gentleman for a husband, which I hope she has obtained. Her many friends here all wish her a peaceful, pleasant and happy future.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Rev. H. M. Shouse will preach at Junction City Sunday.

—The stockholders of Janie Wash Institute held a meeting last night.

—J. C. Coulter and H. H. McAninch shipped a car load of lambs to Cincinnati Wednesday.

—J. W. McWhorter, Jr., has been very sick for some two weeks in consequence of which he has withdrawn from the bicycle races at the Stanford Fair.

—Miss Mary Coffey, of Phil., is visiting the Misses Godby. Miss Altie McDaniels, of the Masonic Orphan Home at Louisville, is visiting at Mr. J. M. Durham's. Rev. H. M. Shouse returned last week from a visit to his parents in Woodford county. Mr. Zach Thomas, of London, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. W. T. Miller. Perry Wesley has been employed to teach the school at Yosemite and will begin Monday.

—Santo, the assassin of Carnot, has broken down and spends his time in wailing: "I do not want to die; I am only 20; I do not want to die."

—All of the roads out of Cincinnati have resumed operations in all departments, and are handling freight and passenger business as usual, mostly with new firemen and brakemen.

—The town of Campbellsville, in Taylor county, suffered a $30,000 fire Monday night, from which it will take years to recover. It broke out in the brick building occupied by Newton Bros. and Mack Goode. Both of these firms had a large stock of dry goods and groceries which was completely destroyed. Jablow's confectionery, Wright's law office, Border's Hotel, a barber shop and several stables on the South side of Main street were destroyed.

—In a circular written to the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, Chief Arthur, who is eminently conservative and a man of sense, warns against any acts contrary to the rules of their order or to their contract obligations. He insists that they shall perform the duties to which they have been bound by their officers; that no attempt be made through local grievances save by the rules of their organization. He advises the men to have no part in local disturbances, to accept orders from no other organization; and in general that they stick to their engines and obey the orders of their railroad officials.

Oh, merchant in thy hour of e e e,
If on this paper you should c c c,
Take our advice and be thrice y. y.
Go straightway out and advert i;
You'll find the project of some u u u,
Neglect can offer no ex q q q.
Be wise at once, prolong your da a a a,
A silent business soon do k!

Buckin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve for all cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped skin, chilblains, coras and all skin eruptions. It positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

HUSTONVILLE.

Catalogues of the Stanfor Fair have been received at this place. Liberal premiums have been offered; in short, everything has been done to make it an honor to proud old Lincoln.

—Dr. Alcoo and Wm. Dodd have returned from the "Federal City." They were so royally treated by Congressmen McCrae and Adams that they want to vote for both candidates in the coming race.

—Miss Mary Lusk left Wednesday for a short visit to Miss Anne Hathaway, of Harrodsburg, and thence to Lawrenceburg for a brief stay. The popular Will King is in Winchester. Misses Lena Goode, Bettie and Mac Logan and Mrs. Bradley are attending the Chautauqua. Miss Mattie Dinwiddie has returned home from Adairville.

—Portman Peacock leaves for Cincinnati to-day to join the standing army. If he were an expert with a gatling gun, he could readily begin work in Chicago. May he become a gallant soldier and an honor to his native State. Mr. George Weatherford is quite sick. Prof. Thompson, wife and daughter are at Russell Springs. Dr. H. Brown is on the sick list. Mrs. G. B. Cooper is visiting relatives here.

—On the evening of the 17th there will be a concert at the Christian church, proceeds to go towards buying a carpet for same. The best talent in Central Kentucky will be involved, namely Mrs. Robt. Lyles, of Nashville; Mrs. Dr. Huffman, Lexington; Miss Margaret Bennett, Circleville, O.; Miss Dollie Williams, Minnie Dinwiddie, and Mrs. Joe Riffe, of this place. This is simply a synopsis of the program; however, since it is of the highest character, we feel sure of success. Miss Mary Lusk will recite "Birth of Christ" as only an accomplished elocutionist can. On the same evening the Christian Endeavor Society, a very worthy organization, will serve refreshments at Christian College, proceeds to be expended as the society may think best. Admission 25¢ only. Let us all turn out in full force, help the worthy causes and get more than value received.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—The ladies of the Methodist church had an ice cream stand in the park during the concert Wednesday evening and raked in a few shekels for their church. —Mrs. W. O. Sweeney, who has been engaged in the millinery business for some time made an assignment to Attorney Clell Johnston last week for the benefit of her creditors. The extremely dull times and slow collections was the cause of the failure.

—While fixing the large gasoline lamp in the band stand Wednesday evening John Harris, of color, had his hands and arms badly burned. One of the burners sprung a leak, throwing a stream of burning gasoline on him. The skin was peeled from the flesh from his elbows down to his fingers.

—Mr. John N. Lake, of Terre Haute, Ind., and Miss Mattie Pearl Brown drove over to Stanford Wednesday evening and were married. The groom travels for a large wholesale house and is a prosperous young gentleman. The bride is the youngest daughter of Judge Eph. Brown and was a popular young society lady.

—Messrs. Homer Batson and Graham Frank left on their wheels for Niagara Falls Monday. They expect to make the entire journey on their cycles. Miss Chastine McGregor, a beautiful young lady, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Ellen Owlesley. Miss Mary Craig, of New Orleans, is visiting Miss Jeanie Lackey. Dr. Hugh Grant left to-day for Virginia, he will probably locate to practice his profession. Mrs. Schilling and Miss Devore, of Richmond, are visiting Miss Nellie Dillon. Mrs. Fred Lippold and children, of Louisville, are visiting Mrs. W. O. Sweeney. Miss Bettie Robinson is visiting friends in Danville.

—The grand jury at Lexington in a moral spasm, produced doubtless by the Breckinridge disclosures, indicted a number of prominent men for renting houses for keeping women in for immoral purposes and Judge Reeder for letting them have the houses.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafter, of the Freeman House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and in two days was well again. Mr. Shafter has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. The same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his 12 month old child suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and was sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing worse and still it was a boy but little more than when born, or perhaps 1 pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used, a marked improvement was noticed and the child began to eat and drink. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamaroa, Ill. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson does not risk it for this because the remedy is a certain cure for diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—Mr. W. T. Humphrey, our enterprising druggist and timber dealer, is now very seriously ill.

—Mrs. Bell Stone has opened a much needed furniture store near her residence.

—Married on the 10th inst. by the Rev. N. C. Hamlin, Mr. Lindsey D. Black, a widower of 22 years of age, to Miss Rosalie, daughter of Levi Haggard.

—Mr. Roy S. Beazley, formerly from near Stanford, has been, for some time running a horse training stable at Brown's old stand at this place. Roy is a good fellow, well up to his business, and is a valuable acquisition to our town.

—From late advices from the printer, the History of the 1st Kentucky Cavalry, which was confidently believed would be issued the first of the month, owing to unavailable obstacles can not be out now until about the last of the month.

—All lovers of law and order, irrespective of party, indorse the INTERIOR JOURNAL's position in last Tuesday's issue on the alarming state of affairs at the present time. State rights and State sovereignty are pleasant things to theorize about when the ship of State is sailing on a calm sea, but when a fierce storm arises threatening wreckage and destruction, it takes ultra Hamiltonianism to meet the situation properly. Even Jefferson himself, the author of State sovereignty, said that it was necessary at times for the National Government to show its teeth.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Stanford Fair, July 19 and 20.

—Sam Myers sold to John Peoples a brood mare for $100.

—John Hill bought of George Baker a lot of mountain cattle at 1½ to 2c.

—The world annually uses 19,500,000,000 bushels of wheat and 25,000,000 bushels of corn.

—S. H. Baughman's Cora Taylor won a race at Chicago Tuesday. She went 1½ miles in 1:15.

—W. H. Nelson, near Princeton, has a cow that has dropped five calves in two years, twins first and triplets the other day. All still living.

—Wheat is selling at about 46 cents.

Corn is looking well and growing nicely.

Some farmers are feeding their wheat to hogs.—Georgetown Times.

—Best wheat is selling at 53c in Cincinnati, lower grades at 50. Forty-five cents seems to be the prevailing price in all the interior towns of Kentucky.

—William Rue & Son's Gambonito trotted the third mile at Danville the other day in 2:18½. Pretty good considering the fact that he has served 56 mares this season.

—Railroads carry a man from New York to San Francisco for $80; a hog weighing the same as a man is carried the same distance for $6; advantage in favor of being a hog $74.

—Mr. J. H. Gaines, who cuts and deals largely in hay, says the present crop is not more than half a crop. The grass is short and full of white-top and other weeds.—Lexington Gazette.

—The July returns to the statistician of the Department of Agriculture make the average cotton condition 89.6 against 88.3 last year. Corn shows an increased acreage of 4,000,000 acres. The average condition of corn is 95, as against 93.2 last year. Winter wheat shows an improvement and spring wheat a decline.

—In another column R. E. Coleman, of Harrodsburg, offers his livery stable for sale on account of bad health. This is one of the best paying stands in the State, has been established many years and has always done a thriving business. It is a complete establishment and the building is one of the largest and finest of its kind in the State. It will be disposed of at a bargain.

—Country people don't know anything about hard times. Strikes and labor riots don't bother them. They go right along plowing their corn, hoeing their tobacco and cutting their wheat and have no thought of the hard times. We have never entered a country home yet where there was not plenty to eat and that of the very best. Country people don't know how well off they are.

—Breckinridge News.

—N. J. Cone, of Moreland, sold to Geo. Cogar 8,000 lbs. of hemp at $5. Richard Gentry sold Embry & Fox 100 barrels of corn at $2.75 in the crib. Monte Fox bought for Goldsmith, the following fat cattle: 33 head from J. T. Rife, 30 from R. Cobb, 16 from T. L. Lillard, 20 from J. C. Johnson and 20 from Ebanks Brothers, at $4 to $4.35, for July and August delivery.—Advocate.

—The fruit trade of Mobile has been greatly injured by the strike. Several cargoes of bananas and other fruits, brought from Central America, have been dumped into Mobile Bay. At Atlanta car loads of watermelons and peaches are side tracked, as the roads will not undertake to forward them. Melons are selling at five cents a piece and peaches at 15 cents a bushel, but there is no market for a tithe of what is on hand.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Gen. Booth claims that the Salvation army converts to Christianity 200,000 people every year.

—The union services will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday night and will be conducted by Elder W. E. Ellis.

—There are 15,000 delegates to the National Convention of the Christian Endeavor at Cleveland they are still arriving.

—The Rev. E. E. Willey, of Sedalia, Mo., has been expelled from a local Chautauqua circle because he inspired a game of base ball.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, wife of the well-known minister and elder, John L. Smith, died at Danville, of flux. She was 72 years old.

—It is a Methodist, and not a Christian, church that is being built near Preachersville. Either the young lady or our reporter got mixed.

—The members of the Christian Endeavor choir are requested to meet after prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night.

—Dr. Carpenter will deliver a lecture to boys and young men at the Christian church next Sunday at 3 p.m. Older men who wish to come can do so.

—Sanford, Fleming county, is having the biggest revival in its history. There have been 47 conversions at last accounts. It is conducted by Rev. Mr. Harvey.

—The Frankfort churches will unite their efforts against the devil, build a tabernacle and have the Rev. B. Fay Mills come and point the way to eternal life.

—The High Bridge Camp Meeting will be held July 20 to 30th. The blind chaplain of the Lower House of Congress, Rev. Mr. Milburn, will be one of the many attractions.

—Rev. J. O. Rust, of Bardstown, who held a protracted meeting at the Baptist church here a few years ago, has mounted the lecture platform with "The Coming Man—Will he Come?"

—Heretofore the visitor in New Orleans could not tell by the looks of the streets when Sunday came, but hereafter all business is to cease on the Lord's day. The ordinance to that effect will be enforced to the letter.

—Wheat is selling at about 46 cents.

Corn is looking well and growing nicely.

Some farmers are feeding their wheat to hogs.—Georgetown Times.

—Best wheat is selling at 53c in Cincinnati, lower grades at 50. Forty-five cents seems to be the prevailing price in all the interior towns of Kentucky.

—The Middleboro News says that Uncle Joe Hopper's meeting at the Presbyterian church there resulted in 30 admissions and a great revival of the membership. One of the good results is the establishment of a young men's prayer meeting which is largely attended.

—The Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Louisville has secured the services of the distinguished divine, the Rev. Robert L. Dabney, D. D., LL. D., of Virginia, and he will deliver a course of lectures there during the months of November and December.

—A Baptist brother recently said that a preacher who votes either the democratic or republican or populist ticket is worse than a saloon keeper. Of course it makes no difference what a man says who can say a thing like that. We cite the utterance, not because we attach the slightest importance to it, but simply to illustrate how cranky a good man can become when he bids good-bye to his common sense and follows a hobby.—Western Recorder.

—Dr. Eaton, of the Baptist Recorder, never experienced the delightful sensations of the dreamy waltz or he could not have written this: "We are glad that dancing is going out of style. At the fashionable watering places there is nothing like so much of it as formerly. Dancing is a relic of barbarism, and, as people become more and more refined and cultured, they care less and less for dancing. To educate the people is one good way to get rid of dancing. What possible sense is there in ladies and gentlemen grabbing each other and prancing around a room?"

—Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A pure medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters is a specific for the liver and kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood; will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion, try Electric Bitters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50c and $1 per bottle at A. R. Penny's drug store.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castor.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JULY 13, 1894

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

FOR CONGRESS.....	JAS. B. MCREEARY
For County Judge.....	JAS. WALKER GIVENS
" Clerk.....	G. B. COOPER
" Attorney.....	J. B. PAXTON
" Sheriff.....	T. D. NEWLAND
" Assessor.....	E. O. KENNEDY
" Jailer.....	G. W. DEBORD

The end is in sight and the meanest, most unreasonable and the costliest strike in the history of the country will soon be a hideous memory. The strong arm of the military has brought the strikers to their senses, railroads are beginning to run their trains according to schedule with new men in the places of those who attempted not only to tie them up, but destroy them as well, and Debs, the great, the only and all powerful Debs, is under bond of $10,000, charged with conspiracy to commit unlawful acts against the U. S. government. The charges are made by the Federal grand jury empaneled to investigate the case, and are based on the orders in writing sent out by him directing men on the different railways to quit work, thus stopping the running of mail trains. All of his correspondence and telegrams were seized. If convicted, Debs is liable to a sentence of six months to six years in the penitentiary and a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000. Having gained world wide notoriety and strutted a brief season on the stage, let us hope that the form of this arch conspirator against the public and the greatest enemy of the laboring man will soon be clothed in a convict's garb and working something else except the jaw he has worked so long and so calamitously to the country. But whether he gets his deserts or not, it has been settled that the law and not anarchy is still supreme in this land of the free, and that the representatives of order and not of anarchy will remain at the head of affairs. God reigns and the government still lives.

The mayor of Little Rock is made of the right material. In response to a dispatch from the mayor of Detroit requesting 50 other mayors to join him in requesting Pullman to arbitrate, he replied: "Under ordinary conditions and circumstances, I would favor arbitration. Present conditions forbid it. I am opposed to treating with people who are defying the laws and orders of the court and are now engaged in destroying lives and property. Support the Government." That's the idea in a nut shell. The other time serving, labor vote hunting officials showed that they were ready to do anything to make themselves more solid with the boys without regard to consequences. It is just such time serving cowards that made the conditions at Chicago and elsewhere possible.

The Administration will not cease its efforts until the constitutional right of every man to secure employment free from intimidation is thoroughly established. If that should be the outcome of the present struggle it will be well worth the price paid for it, dear as it has been." That is the statement made by one close to Mr. Cleveland, who can always be relied on in any emergency. With such men as he for president and a few governors like Jones of Alabama, the riotous element would long since have found its proper place in jail.

When the governor of California could not be hauled on a railroad train, when a car load of meat at Chicago could not be iceed and the delegates to the Christian Endeavor meeting at Cleveland could not go through unless by special permit of Czar Debs, it was time for the country to call a halt. There is no place in the United States for dictators and anarchists except inside of prison walls.

With a hand and a half waiting for every job, the Louisville brakemen and firemen, who were fools enough to leave their positions, thereby giving up their wages that their families need for the necessities of life, in order to help Debs gratify his spite against Pullman, no doubt realize by this time that Debs is not omnipotent and that a lost job is hard to regain.

The threatened trouble in California did not materialize. The strikers melted before the military like mist before the noon day sun. The blue coats are a band of beautiful persuaders, when a man like your Uncle Grover is commander in-chief. It is deplorable that such drastic remedies should have to be used, but malignant disease demand heroic treatment.

The democrats in convention at Compton nominated Hon. Joe M. Kendall for Congress on the second ballot, over a field of half a dozen common horses. The same convention by a vote of 51 to 22, recommended Judge W. M. Beckner, of Clark, to fill out Congressman Lisle's term.

No strike will ever have the endorsement of the public unless it is made on extra good and sufficient grounds. Sympathetic strikes against corporations with which the strikers have no grievance have fallen into innocuous desuetude.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON commends the action of Mr. Cleveland and says he has not transcended his power. "I believe" says he, "that there is no spot in the United States where the United States troops may not go under orders without asking anybody's consent, and that the enforcement of the laws of the United States is the sworn duty of the president, and the army an appropriate instrument to use in the enforcement of those laws where they are violently resisted and the civil officers are unable to deal with the situation. If the posse comitatus law limits the president's constitutional power at all—which is very doubtful—it only requires the proclamation to precede the use of the troops." This shows that Mr. Harrison is statesman enough not to try to take advantage of an unfortunate condition, for party aggrandizement and will increase the good will in which he is held.

In obedience to a demand from Dictator Debs, Grand Master Sovereign, of the Knights of Labor, issued a call for them to lay down their tools and work no more until Pullman compromised with his employees. The strike was to become effective Wednesday, but for once a sovereign found himself without subjects. The knights as a rule refused to obey the reckless order and continued to pursue their labors, thereby showing their wisdom and good citizenship. The days of autocratic labor leaders are numbered. Sensible men will refuse to follow them after Debs' damnable and deserved fiasco.

BRECKINRIDGE, Owens and Settle are making the welkin ring, but the strike has overshadowed the race in the 7th and but little is heard from it except that the greatest h. m. of the day, as Judge Durham called him, says there is no question of his nomination, the size of his majority alone being problematic; the gentleman from Scott says he is gaining ground daily and will get there, while the Owen county entry claims that he has a dead sure cinch on the nomination. In this state of case all of them should feel happy as the goose honks high.

The strike of the switchmen and firemen on the L. & N. at Louisville was of short duration. The conductors and engineers refused to join them and almost before they knew it their places were filled by new men. The road was put to but little inconvenience and now the fellows who quit are kicking themselves for being such fools, while they apply in vain for the places they gave up. We had an idea that L. & N. men, particularly, had more sense than to follow the lead of such a leader as Debs.

SOME of the papers are making much ado over a very small matter. Jack Chin is said to have bet $500 that Mercer county will give a majority against McCreary, and that is accepted as conclusive evidence that it will. Jack would no doubt give that much and more to see the man beaten who did his favorite up a few years ago, but his bet doesn't settle anything. Besides we are told that betting is a fool's argument, even if assured also that money talks.

Mr. CLEVELAND seems to be demonstrating to the satisfaction of law loving men that the law and not the riotous will of the strikers is supreme in the land. Plenty of hot shot for the incendiary and murderous mob and a rope for Debs will settle the question for years to come that a man may quit work, but he shall not by force or otherwise prevent the man who wants to work from filling his place.

It is said that no railroad strike has ever occurred South of the Potomac and West of the Alleghanies. The reason assigned is that it is the policy of the companies to employ none but the native population along their lines. These are mostly men of the better class and are governed by reason, instead, of being driven by such cattle as Debs.

The Winchester Democrat with the flippancy of adolescence refers to us as the "bald-headed sinner of the INTERIOR JOURNAL," thereby displaying his ignorance in two essential particulars. First if there is a bald hair on our head no one has discovered it and second if we are a sinner, nobody suspects it. With this slight correction the rest of the sentence may go.

Not many country editors can afford a European trip, but the senior editor of the Midway Clipper is among them. Mr. Richard Godson, who is as bright as he is clever, is now sailing the briny deep for a three months' tour of England and the continent.

The Kentucky delegation in Congress is said to be dead against the Senate amendments to the Wilson bill, as are most all other good democrats. A half loaf is better than no bread, however, and compromise is better than delay in this matter. The country is suffering from suspense.

There is a movement among labor people of Philadelphia to impeach Attorney General Olney.

President McBride, of the United Mine Workers, states that there are between 80,000 and 90,000 miners out of employment at the present time.

The strike has not raised the price of cattle in Cincinnati, best being quoted at 41; hogs are up, however, with tops at 6c; best lambs 4.60 and best sheep 31.

NEWSY NOTES.

The Georgetown street railway declared a dividend of 4 per cent.

The strike has collapsed at Nashville and is practically over at Birmingham.

James Doolin has been appointed postmaster at Dabney, Pulaski county.

Mrs. Dr. Williams, who has been bedridden for 22 years, died at Frankfort.

The paralysis of traffic caused by the strike has compelled the Big Four to lay off 3,000 men.

It took 1,059 ballots to nominate a republican candidate for Congress in the 2d Kansas district.

The strike is over and it will be a long time before such a silly attempt is made again to coerce the railroads.

The oldest mason in the State is dead again. This time down in Caldwell. Isaac Curry died at Princeton, aged 91.

A company is organizing in East St. Louis to establish an opposition to the Pullman Company with a capital of $500,000.

At Terre Haute, Ind., a judge decided that the school board could compel all children attending the public schools to be vaccinated.

Ohio is first in sheep and wool, second in petroleum and steel, fourth in wheat, coal and liquors and fifth in cows, bay and tobacco.

Floyd White, the negro charged with the assassination of young Herbert White in Fayette, was arrested and barely escaped lynching.

The passenger steamer Vlademir and an Italian steamer collided near Eupatoria, on the western coast of Crimea, and 60 persons were drowned.

Jonas G. Godshalk, a leading business man of Philadelphia, died from the effects of a single honey bee sting. The bee's fang entered the pneumo gastric nerve.

A farmer in DeKalb county, Ala., was at work in his garden, and in turning over with his spade a handful of potatoes he turned up $3,000 in gold and silver.

The residence of Mrs. Mary Smith, near Paducah, caught fire while she was away from home, and her five-year-old son, who was asleep, was burned to death.

The three-year old son of Bryant West, of Tiffin, O., shot the top of his head off while playing with an old pistol his older brother had thoughtlessly given to him.

Chris Gantz, a German farmer near Valentine, Neb., has invented a bicycle with sail and is now on his way to New York astride it. He expects to make the trip in 15 days.

Gen. Dan Macauley, late of Louisville, and a brother of the owner of Macauley's theatre there, died at Managua, Nicaragua, where he was connected with the canal project.

In addition to the indictments already found against the strike leaders, there will be numerous others presented against those who took an active part in the Chicago riots.

Mayor Pingree, of Detroit, presented the mayors' telegrams urging arbitration to the Pullman officials at Chicago, and was informed the company had nothing to arbitrate.

The republicans have issued a call for a convention to meet at Georgetown Friday, July 27, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in that (the Seventh) district.

The State superintendent of public instruction declares the offices of post master and school trustee to be incompatible, and that both offices can not be filled by the same person.

Last year in the crematory of the Perle-Chaise Cemetery, Paris, there were 3,741 cremations. In Tokio, the chief city of Japan, the average number of cremations is 30 a day.

Senator Daniel's resolution indorsing the course of the president in suppressing the lawlessness incident to the strike was adopted by the Senate. An amendment favoring arbitration was defeated.

Mrs. Mary Greene, who celebrated her 102d birthday a few days ago at Swampont, R. I., has lived for over 75 years in her present home, which is within two miles of the house in which she was born.

Gouch Hood and James Moore, two farmers engaged in threshing wheat in Mercer, had a quarrel over a trivial matter and Moore was shot and killed. Hood escaped. The dead man left a widow and nine children.

Judge Grosscup ordered the Federal authorities to return to Debs all of his private letters. Attorney General Olney wired to special United States Attorney Walker that the seizure of the papers was not according to law and that they should be returned.

The arrival of Federal troops at Spring Valley, Ill., the scene of the recent miners' riots, caused an attack on them with stones by a mob of foreigners. The regulars opened fire, killing two men and wounding several others.

Mike Cochran, a farmer living near Hinton, W. Va., finished cutting wheat and hung his cradle in a shed. A heavy wind came before he got out and blew the shed down. Cochran was knocked down over the cradle and cut nearly in two.

A terrible drowning disaster is reported from Mad, near Tokay, in Northern Hungary. A ferryboat, which was crossing the river Thess, was capsized with 200 people on board. It is reported that about 100 of the passengers were drowned.

At Troy, N. Y., Bartholomew Shea, who killed Robert Ross in a riot on the municipal election day, was condemned to death.

As a Mascot he heads the list. On June 30 Mr. Debs ordered a boycott of the Chicago Inter Ocean. On Saturday, June 30, the circulation of the Inter Ocean was 88,400, and by Saturday, July 7, it had steadily risen to 106,725. July 1, it was 92,830 and on Saturday, July 8, it was 116,675.

Ira Atkins, a love sick youth of Lincoln county, W. Va., went to his sweetheart's house at night, but she refused him admittance, as did her parents when he broke in the door, and was later arrested for housebreaking, with the result of being found guilty and sent up for five years.

H. T. Huddleston, of Marion, whose body perspired continually after his supposed death, was buried. His relatives became uneasy for fear he had been buried alive and had him exhumed. Upon opening the coffin the features were horribly distorted showing that their fears were realized.

Friday, August 10, is the date on which Congress now thinks it may adjourn, but if it takes the eight democratic conferees two weeks to reach an agreement on the tariff bill, how long may it not take the six republican conferees, the 84 members of the Senate and the 355 members of the House to come into a common understanding? —Times.

At Westville, Ill., the mob had burned a number of freight cars and then attacked a passenger train on the Eastern Illinois road. Troops were summoned from Danville and fired from a train, over the heads of the mob, hoping thus to disperse the people. A woman standing in her yard and a girl standing in the door of her home were killed by the fire and an unknown man was fatally wounded. The troops then charged the mob and scattered it.

A most atrocious crime was committed by the strikers in California, a train in charge of Federal troops being ditched, causing the loss of the lives of the engineer and three privates and the serious injury of four. The leader of the strikers has issued a statement denying that they were responsible for the accident, though threats were made before the train left that it would never reach its destination. The track on the bridge where the derailment occurred was torn up for a 100 feet and the rails covered with sand.

A delayed letter from Mr. F. M. Lutes, of Van Alstyne, Texas, says: "The crop prospects were never more promising in Texas than at present, we have had good rains all during the spring, though just at this time a little rain for corn is needed. The wheat and oats made a fine yield in all North Texas. It is worth from 45 to 50c per bushel, oats from 27 to 28c. It is thought oats will advance from present prices. Wheat is making in this country from 15 to 30 bushels per acre, oats from 40 to 80 bushels per acre. Not much fruit here this year, the severe weather in March killed it. Gardens have been very fine and vegetables cheap and plentiful."

This is The Time.

THIS : WEEK !

We follow up our wonderful bargains of the past two weeks with others of more striking character. We show goods which can be found nowhere else in Stanford at prices which do not even cover the cost to manufacture and import them. This is the time to buy and buy quick.

GET - THE - BEST !

And get at a very low figure. Our goods speak for themselves, our prices are made to clear out now. Indigo blue calico 4c, American Shirting Calico 4c, White Goods 5, 6, and 7c, Dimities 10c, worth 15c, all Dress Goods will be sold

Regardless Of COST !!

Whalebones 5c per dozen, Ladies' Black Hose 15c and 10c, worth double the money. Lancaster Apron Ginghams 4½c, elegant line of Embroiders which will be sold for 5c, 7c, 9c, worth double the money. Just received another line of Children's Hats at 10c, worth 35c.

Men's Hats For 25c,

Worth from $1 to $1.50. In order to reduce our Clothing Stock as quickly as possible we have this week made a general Sweeping Reduction. Children's Suits 50c, 75c, $1; Boy's Long Pants Suits, $2, $2.50, $3. Men's suits $3, $4, $5. Any of the above suits are worth at least double the money. Bear in mind that we sell Shoes and Slippers for less money than our competitors can buy them for.

LOUISVILLE : STORE,

STANFORD, KY.,

A. URBANSKY & CO., Proprietor
T. D. RANEY, Manager.

Furniture, : Furniture !

If prices are any inducement you will certainly take advantage of this opportunity to buy Furniture that is unrivaled in quality and design. Antique Oak Dresser Suites go at $15; Antique Oak Cheval Suites at $20; good Cotton Mattresses at $2.50; No. 1 Woven Wire Bed Springs $3; Cane Seat Chairs per set $3.50; Cutting Tables 75c and $1; Bed Lounges and Couches $8 to $10; Chataqua Writing Desks $6; Baby Carriages $5 to $10. Parlor Suites and Plush Chairs kept in stock and made to order. Special attention paid to odd sizes in Window Shades. Mattresses of any kind made to order. The largest variety of Picture Easels Moulding ever handled in Stanford. Picture Frames made in the latest styles of moulding. The constant inflow and outflow of goods manifests my success as a low priced cash dealer. When you look through my stock and get my prices you can but say that my goods are handsome and prices reasonable. Give me a call.

W. W. WITHERS.

— ALL MY —

Accounts : Are : Due !

July and January, and without any exception those whose accounts are six months past due

Will be Charged Interest

Do not be surprised at seeing it on your account and do not ask me to deduct it.

H. J

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD KY., - JULY 13, 1894

E. C. WALTON, Business Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

Buy your school books and school supplies of all kinds at A. R. Penny's.

WATCHES, CLOCKS and jewelry repaired and warranted. Engraving a specialty, at A. R. Penny's.

The largest stock of Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery, Paints and Wall Paper at A. R. Penny's. Prescriptions a specialty.

PERSONAL POINTS.

COL. W. G. WELCH went to Louisville yesterday.

Mrs. DR. S. G. HOCKER is visiting relatives in Hartland.

MR. J. CARROLL BAILEY is clerking at the Myers House.

JOHN W. STURGES, Highland, has been granted a pension.

MISS CECILIE THURMOND is visiting Mrs. J. S. May in Somerset.

JUDGE J. B. DENNIS, the jolly buggy man, was here Wednesday.

MRS. MARY BOWMAN and little Miss Mary Reid went to Lexington Tuesday.

M. S. BAUGHMAN went to Shelbyville Wednesday to see his mare, Eva B., trot.

MRS. L. A. FARRIS returned to Lexington yesterday after a visit to her parents here.

MR. B. W. GAINES went to Lexington Tuesday to take his little grand children.

MISS FANNIE SHANKS went over to Lexington, Wednesday, to attend the Chautauqua.

G. W. TRIBBLE, JR., of Christian county, is visiting his sister, Miss Mattie Tribble.

MR. VIRGIL COLEMAN, of Middleburg, was here Wednesday, the guest of Hon. Harvey Helm.

MISS MINNIE STRAUB is back from Clinton, where she has been in the military business.

MISS AMBROSIA THOMAS, of Louisville, arrived yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. W. B. McRoberts.

MISSES ANNIE MCKINNEY and Annie Alcorn have been visiting the Misses Alcorn at Hustonville.

MRS. E. T. PENCE and Mrs. J. E. LYNN went to Wilmore Wednesday to attend the Holliness Camp Meeting.

MRS. MONTIE FOX, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Alice Baughman, returned to Danville Tuesday.

MRS. CATH BAILEY, who has been in bad health for some time, is seeking restoration at Crab Orchard Springs.

MRS. JULIA C. DUNN and Miss Annie Green went to Rockcastle Springs for several weeks' stay, Wednesday.

MRS. HELEN HUFFMAN and Sam Lusk, of Hustonville, passed through Wednesday to visit relatives at Lancaster.

MRS. BETTIE MCKINNEY, MR. W. M. Bright and family and Miss Dollie McRoberts are staying at Hale's Well.

MISS GEORGIA WRAY is back from a visit to Louisville and Miss Mary Bruce from a visit to Miss Katie Lee Yeager, in Boyle.

MR. SAMUEL L. BASTIN, now associated with a mining company near Pineville, has been visiting his parents in this county.

MISS MATTIE PEARL BROWN of Lancaster was here Wednesday where she was joined by her friend, Mr. J. N. Lake, of Terre Haute, Ind.

MISS SARAH WARNER, of Garrard, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Perrin, who has just presented her husband with a 10½ pound girl.

MRS. JOHN A. HALDEMAN, of Louisville, returned with Miss Jean Buchanan to Crab Orchard Tuesday, where she will remain a few weeks.

MRS. J. J. McROBERTS went to Parksville yesterday to attend the burial of her cousin, Miss Nannie Lackey. Mrs. John W. Rout accompanied her.

MR. GEORGE E. SMITH, of the Fretwell Bed Brace Co., was here this week having contracts, circulars, &c., printed for agents for the sale of the patent.

BUR ENGLEMAN left yesterday morning to join Tom Yeager and Tip Bruce at Columbus, O. His business will be to look after their horses generally.

DR. W. B. O'BANNON is moving his family into his new "House of Seven Gables" on Lancaster street, which is a decided improvement to that part of town.

PROF. J. F. DUFFY, the new principal of the Stanford Seminary, was up Tuesday to see after the school. He says he has the assurance that 30 pupils will be on hand at the opening.

ELD. R. GRAHAM FRANK, after a two weeks charge upon the cohorts of the devil at Crab Orchard and snatching sundry susceptible maidens' hearts, is on his way to Niagara Falls with Mr. Homer Batson, both of whom are making the journey on wheels.

MR. J. H. MILLER will "bid fare well to every" friend next Tuesday and leave for New York, from which port he will sail to his post of duty on the Falkland Islands, a thousand miles the other side of nowhere. He has promised to let us hear from him through the columns of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, which will in a measure compensate his friends for the loss of his jolly company.

CITY AND VICINITY.

SPECIAL prices on cutlery for one week.

W. H. Wearen & Co.

STANFORD Fair, July 19 and 20.

Come to the fair next week and tell your friends to do likewise.

Your account is made out. Please call and settle. A. R. Penny.

There is always something new at Danks, the jeweler's. Call and see.

Tell your neighbor they are selling 10c dress ginghams at 5c at Severance & Son.

I NEED the money you owe me to pay my debts. Please call and settle. M. F. Elkin.

If you are a bicycle crank you should attend the fair next week. Three races each day.

For SALE.—Lot on Lower Main St. adjoining the Helm property. Sine & Menefee.

For RENT.—Store-room recently occupied by McKinney & Hocker. W. B. McKinney.

There will be a picnic at Junction City on the 19th for the benefit of the Catholic churches.

PENNY has the best stock and will sell watches and jewelry lower than you can buy elsewhere.

PLEASANT weather still prevails. The days are delightful and the moon-light nights beyond compare.

A MURDER is a serious thing but the way we murder prices in our store is a caution. Danks, the jeweler.

PLEASE come and pay your account. The money is due and I need it. Don't postpone, but come at once. H. C. Rupley, the Tailor.

THERE are about 75 entries to the several bicycle races at the Fair and each mail brings more. The 10-mile handicap closed with 20 entries.

You would not think times are very hard if you could see the number of people who are carrying goods away from Severance & Son's cash store.

THE Cincinnati Southern has reinstated the eight engineers who struck but the places of the 100 brakemen and switchmen have been filled. The road is running in good order.

NOTICE TO CARPENTERS AND PAINTERS.—Bids will be received on work to be done on Mt. Zenia school-house until the 21st of July. Apply to D. B. Stagg, chairman, for specifications.

PHOTOGRAPHER EARL will give a framed picture of the members of the Teachers' Institute to the lady who writes the best essay. The INTERIOR JOURNAL will also give a prize for something to be announced later.

DR. PEYTON went up to Corbin Tuesday to see D. E. Blackwell, a brakeman, who was seriously hurt near that place by being knocked from a car. The doctor thinks the chances of his recovery are very poor.

DR. STEELE BAILEY, secretary, notifies the doctors that the next meeting of Central Kentucky Medical Association will be held in the Harrodsburg Opera House, on the 19th. Dr. J. B. Kinnaird will read the leading paper.

FROM last Friday's examination there were issued 12 first class certificates, five second and four third. Three failed. The examiners say that the papers show, as a rule, a marked improvement in a majority of cases. The teachers have learned that "there is no excellence without labor," and are preparing for the work by hard study and strict attention to the science and art of teaching. It is well. If the public schools are to be the best, then the best teachers must be at the helm. The schools in this county are nearly all taken.

THE following notice of a marriage, shorn of the sensational features, appears in the Climax: "At the residence of the bride's parents, near Richmond on Monday, Mr. Edgar Blanton and Miss Lilly Miller were united in matrimony. Rev. J. R. Boatman performed the ceremony." It is the peaceable ending of what promised to be a tragedy. It was to this couple that the INTERIOR JOURNAL referred a week or two ago. After the denouement, Mr. Blanton sought by flight to get out of the trouble he had caused, but he was run down and captured. A stay in jail and the threats of an irate father with a shot gun brought him to realizing sense of his position and he saved his life and the girl's honor by marrying her.

SPARKS from the engine of No. 23 set fire to the dry grass in Mr. B. N. Rollor's yard yesterday afternoon and the alarm was given. The fire company responded promptly but the neighbors had put the fire out before it arrived.

THE Fair amphitheatre is being put up and everything is getting in readiness for the Fair, which comes off next week. The seating capacity will be much greater than that of last year or the year before, and the accommodations on the grounds will also be better than ever before.

A VERY attractive program has been arranged by Miss Anne Shanks, a taper of that State replied: "Everything is lovely. The prohibitionists have the law and we have the whisky." That's about the size of the condition here, but we do not regard it as lovely by any means. Prohibition prevails in Stanford, but it does not in Rowland from which we are only divided by an imaginary line and from which we should never have been separated. Another bar room has been added there, P. W. Green and Tom Ferrell having rented Mrs. Ferrell's property and opened up with Mr. Green's fixtures formerly used here. Mr. Green will run a free bus to it and it will be just as easy for a man to go there for a drink, if he has the time, as to get it here. As license in Rowland is only $150 and would be $1,000 here if granted, it will be seen that Mr. Green has $850 with which to pay the expenses of hauling his customers.

THE program for the concert to be given at the Hustonville Christian church next Tuesday night, 17th, embraces vocal and instrumental solos, duets and trios, recitations, violin numbers, &c. Those who will take part are Mrs. Lee F. Huffman, Mrs. H. R. Caminitz, Mrs. R. J. Lyles and Misses Margaret Bennett, Doline Williams, Minnie Dinwiddie, Mary Holmes Lusk, Mattie Alcorn, Minnie Drye, Anna Morse, Bettie and Mattie Powell, Anne Cook, Huffman and Angie Carpenter. It will be a real feast of music and other good things and the church will doubtless be crowded. The proceeds are for the Christian Endeavor.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Roger Hughes, of Philadelphia, is suing his wife for divorce because she pulled his whiskers.

—There are said to be 10,000 more women than men in the District of Columbia. If true it is a mighty good place to go.

—Driven insane by jealousy, John Drake, of Anderson, Ind., killed his wife and then put an end to his own miserable career.

—In one house in Guthrie, Oklahoma, there are five women from as many States waiting to acquire a residence that may secure divorces.

BELT PINS at Danks, the jeweler.

SILVER mounted tortoise shell hair pins in latest designs, at Danks, jeweler.

FOR SALE.—A skeleton wagon and newly painted and good as new. John Cook, the Barber.

THE metropolitan orchestra is preparing to give a big hop at the Opera House the 2nd night of the fair.

TO LOAN.—$1,000 on unencumbered real estate at 7 per cent. Apply at the INTERIOR JOURNAL office.

OUR stock was never more complete nor prices lower. Come in and let us supply you. Farris & Hardin.

For several days only the local freights have been running on this division. The "through" trains resumed yesterday.

J. S. Rice, agent, was notified yesterday to receive freight for all points, a sure indication that the strikers are RENT.—Store-room recently occupied by McKinney & Hocker. W. B. McKinney.

There will be a picnic at Junction City on the 19th for the benefit of the Catholic churches.

PENNY has the best stock and will sell watches and jewelry lower than you can buy elsewhere.

PLACID weather still prevails. The days are delightful and the moon-light nights beyond compare.

A MURDER is a serious thing but the way we murder prices in our store is a caution. Danks, the jeweler.

PLEASE come and pay your account. The money is due and I need it. Don't postpone, but come at once. H. C. Rupley, the Tailor.

THERE are about 75 entries to the several bicycle races at the Fair and each mail brings more. The 10-mile handicap closed with 20 entries.

YOU would not think times are very hard if you could see the number of people who are carrying goods away from Severance & Son's cash store.

THE Cincinnati Southern has reinstated the eight engineers who struck but the places of the 100 brakemen and switchmen have been filled. The road is running in good order.

NOTICE TO CARPENTERS AND PAINTERS.—Bids will be received on work to be done on Mt. Zenia school-house until the 21st of July. Apply to D. B. Stagg, chairman, for specifications.

PHOTOGRAPHER EARL will give a framed picture of the members of the Teachers' Institute to the lady who writes the best essay. The INTERIOR JOURNAL will also give a prize for something to be announced later.

DR. PEYTON went up to Corbin Tuesday to see D. E. Blackwell, a brakeman, who was seriously hurt near that place by being knocked from a car. The doctor thinks the chances of his recovery are very poor.

DR. STEELE BAILEY, secretary, notifies the doctors that the next meeting of Central Kentucky Medical Association will be held in the Harrodsburg Opera House, on the 19th. Dr. J. B. Kinnaird will read the leading paper.

FROM last Friday's examination there were issued 12 first class certificates, five second and four third. Three failed. The examiners say that the papers show, as a rule, a marked improvement in a majority of cases. The teachers have learned that "there is no excellence without labor," and are preparing for the work by hard study and strict attention to the science and art of teaching. It is well. If the public schools are to be the best, then the best teachers must be at the helm. The schools in this county are nearly all taken.

THE following notice of a marriage, shorn of the sensational features, appears in the Climax: "At the residence of the bride's parents, near Richmond on Monday, Mr. Edgar Blanton and Miss Lilly Miller were united in matrimony. Rev. J. R. Boatman performed the ceremony." It is the peaceable ending of what promised to be a tragedy. It was to this couple that the INTERIOR JOURNAL referred a week or two ago. After the denouement, Mr. Blanton sought by flight to get out of the trouble he had caused, but he was run down and captured. A stay in jail and the threats of an irate father with a shot gun brought him to realizing sense of his position and he saved his life and the girl's honor by marrying her.

SPARKS from the engine of No. 23 set fire to the dry grass in Mr. B. N. Rollor's yard yesterday afternoon and the alarm was given. The fire company responded promptly but the neighbors had put the fire out before it arrived.

THE Fair amphitheatre is being put up and everything is getting in readiness for the Fair, which comes off next week. The seating capacity will be much greater than that of last year or the year before, and the accommodations on the grounds will also be better than ever before.

A VERY attractive program has been arranged by Miss Anne Shanks, a taper of that State replied: "Everything is lovely. The prohibitionists have the law and we have the whisky." That's about the size of the condition here, but we do not regard it as lovely by any means. Prohibition prevails in Stanford, but it does not in Rowland from which we are only divided by an imaginary line and from which we should never have been separated. Another bar room has been added there, P. W. Green and Tom Ferrell having rented Mrs. Ferrell's property and opened up with Mr. Green's fixtures formerly used here. Mr. Green will run a free bus to it and it will be just as easy for a man to go there for a drink, if he has the time, as to get it here. As license in Rowland is only $150 and would be $1,000 here if granted, it will be seen that Mr. Green has $850 with which to pay the expenses of hauling his customers.

THE program for the concert to be given at the Hustonville Christian church next Tuesday night, 17th, embraces vocal and instrumental solos, duets and trios, recitations, violin numbers, &c. Those who will take part are Mrs. Lee F. Huffman, Mrs. H. R. Caminitz, Mrs. R. J. Lyles and Misses Margaret Bennett, Doline Williams, Minnie Dinwiddie, Mary Holmes Lusk, Mattie Alcorn, Minnie Drye, Anna Morse, Bettie and Mattie Powell, Anne Cook, Huffman and Angie Carpenter. It will be a real feast of music and other good things and the church will doubtless be crowded. The proceeds are for the Christian Endeavor.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Roger Hughes, of Philadelphia, is suing his wife for divorce because she pulled his whiskers.

—There are said to be 10,000 more women than men in the District of Columbia. If true it is a mighty good place to go.

—Driven insane by jealousy, John Drake, of Anderson, Ind., killed his wife and then put an end to his own miserable career.

—In one house in Guthrie, Oklahoma, there are five women from as many States waiting to acquire a residence that may secure divorces.

—Under the new husband and wife bill passed by the last Legislature the wife may do anything but wear pants and even that is not absolutely prohibited.—Hartford Republican.

—Lovers must be scarce down there. Two Mississippi girls recently walked a distance of 50 miles through the country to decide which should win a lover of whom both were enamored.

—In Hungary it is the custom for the groom to give the bride a kick after the wedding ceremony to make her feel her subjection. In this country it is the groom who gets the kicking and lives ever afterwards in subjection.

—A coy and blushing maid with the dogwood blossoms of 60 summers in her hair was recently wedded to a loving lad of sweet 16 at Greenlawn, L. L. It is said that their courtship furnished many a pleasing picture of winter lingering in the lap of spring.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

—An Ashland woman lately put in a petition for divorce on the ground that her husband was "a natural born fool."

The court, who was an old bachelor, would not admit the plea, "because" said the learned judges, "if such pleas were held to be valid, every man would be liable to the same charge who gets married. I will sustain the demurral."—Winchester Democrat.

—William S. Montgomery, who has been a student at Central University, Richmond, several years, eloped with Miss Minnie Letcher to Sullivan, Ind., the home of the groom, where they were married by the father of the latter. The young bride is the oldest daughter of W. R. Letcher, one of the best-known turfmen in Kentucky. Miss Letcher is the young lady who on two occasions with two different men set the days and issued invitations to her marriage, withdrawing them in each case before it arrived. We hope she has found

Published Every Tuesday and Friday

AT

$2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

Two doors above Post-Office. Always on hand

The Nobiest and Nicest Goods?

Can be had in the market. Prices lower than the lowest Mourning goods a specialty. Call and examine before buying.

Mrs. Kate Dudderar, Manager, Stanford, Ky.

COMMERCIAL BLOCK

6 OR 8 PAGES.

EVERY FRIDAY.

(When necessary.)

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a.m., returning at 5:00 p.m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North..... 12:37 p.m.

" South..... 1:15 p.m.

Express train " South..... 1:15 p.m.

" North..... 3:25 a.m.

Local Freight North..... 9:30 a.m.

South..... 10:00 a.m.

The latter trains also carry passengers.

The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 30 minutes faster.

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE.

Going North trains pass Junction City as follows: Blue-Grass Vestibule starts 6 a.m., Vestibule Limited 3:35 p.m. Local 11:00 p.m. Florida Limited 3:23 a.m.

South—N. O. Vestibule 12:15 p.m. Florida Limited 12:15 a.m. Local 11:55 p.m. Blue-Grass Vestibule arrives 8:40 p.m.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—[Latest United States Government Food Report.]

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.,
106 Wall Street, New York.THE RILEY HOUSE
F. B. RILEY, Proprietor.

London, - - - Kentucky.

I have moved to my new Hotel and am better prepared than ever to accommodate the public. Good Liveries attached and every convenience provided. Give me a call.

FRANK RILEY.

77

R. H. Bronaugh,
Breeder and shipper of Thoroughbred Duroc Red Jersey Hogs.

Pigs from registered stock for sale, from the best herds in Ohio and Illinois. Call and examine my herd or address R. H. Bronaugh, Crab Orchard.

...IF YOU ARE GOING.....

NORTH OR WEST.
THE.....

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE R. R.

Is the line for you, as its

Double Daily Trains

Make close connections at

LOUISVILLE AND CINCINNATI

For all points.

THROUGH TICKETS SOLD.

BAGGAGE CHECKED THROUGH

For any information enquire of

JOE S. RICE, Agent,

Stanford, Ky.

W. A. McQUOWN, Trav. Pass. Agent,

Junction City, Ky.

John B. Castleman.

A. G. Lanham

ROYAL

Insurance Company

OF LIVERPOOL.

BARBEE & CASTLEMAN

MANAGERS,

Commerce Building, Louisville

Agents throughout the South.

W. A. TRIBBLE, Local Agent.

STANFORD, KY.

-Now is-

-Your Blood?-

I had a malignant breaking out on my leg below the knee, and was cured sound and well with two and a half bottles of S.S.S. Other blood medicines had failed. WILL C. BEATTY, Yorkville, S.C.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK

I was troubled from childhood with an aggravated case of Tetter, and three bottles of S.S.S. cured me permanently.

WALLACE MANN, Manville, I.T.

Our book on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO. Atlanta, Ga.

BILL NYE HAS A FIRE

BUT BY MUCH THOUGHT HE PUTS IT OUT.

Then the Insurance Adjuster Comes and Gets In His Work—A Few General Remarks on the Subject—The New Drink That Helped Me.

(Copyright, 1894, by Edgar W. Nye.)

At HOME, June, 1894.

The Earl of Bismuth, who joined the great Coxey tournament in Washington and acted as May Queen there for two weeks, has just returned to Ticktown, this state, feeling cast down right much.

The Earl of Bismuth is a darkish man, with broad shoulders, and claims that some of the blood of the Castilians courses along his veins. He has done nothing that one could not do honestly to avoid industry. He eats farinaceous food and wears sandals made of coffee sacking brought from Persia to Ticktown by Jules Bryson.

For years Bismuth has been the life of Ticktown—merry, hilarious and rollicksome. He returns cast down and has a very tender place on the frog of his foot.

He has grown up in Ticktown and has always found a roof to shelter him here. Sometimes it was one roof, sometimes another, but when he got to

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

I am insured in five companies besides the one that carries my piano, and so really there should have been six adjusters and the local agent in addition to the independent adjuster, but the climate here is so pure and bracing that one man can do the brain work of two, and so they did not all come.

The local agent and the adjuster, I find, are two different men. One is a social favorite and a pleasing conversationalist, while the other is a man who tells you how cheaply houses like yours can be built nowadays.

The agent gives you all sorts of advantages over the company, and when the adjuster comes you find that those things, after all, were not put into the policy. He also takes you around behind the barn and shows you that, as a matter of fact, your policy has been vitiated seven or eight times within the past year, but he will say nothing of that because you evidently did not set the house on fire yourself, and you seem to want to do better and live a purer life, so he will give you $22 and pass receipts. Then he looks at his watch and says he must hurry away and make some other home happy with his ready John, and away he goes.

The agent and the adjuster are both lovely characters, but in a different way. One fixes it so that you are, in case of fire, be about $1,000 better off, while the other makes you feel so glad to think that the company has not slapped you into jail for fraud that you tremble all over till he goes away.

I was glad that all the adjusters did not come. If they had, I would have been a poor man.

Once I had a house insured for $15,000, and lightning struck one of the chimneys and destroyed the roof, the falling bricks cutting through the tin so that an entire new roof had to be put on. I had planned to go to Italy that summer, but I had to stay at home and prove that I did not tip that chimney over on the house myself in order to get a new roof.

Life insurance is not quite so bad, although I expect to be dug up by seven or eight different companies in order that they may be plumb sure that I am not playing possum on them.

When the adjusters went away, I felt from what they said to me that I was a sort of janitor for these insurance companies, and that if I did not use more care in protecting the property I would be discharged and another man put in my place.

I want to add one word in closing regarding the good effects on my health shown from the constant use of Lithia water, if the reader will pardon my definition from the insurance business.

Last month I was quite ill for a week, and among other things had quite a chill one evening, but a lot of big hot water bottles placed about my person

Since writing my last letter fire has broken out in my chateau, which stands on the east side of the deer park, and which can be seen for over a mile. The building is erected in the Anglo-Saxon style, running back as far as William the Conqueror on one side, while on the other it runs back to the henhouse.

Smoke was noticed at about dusk coming from the ballroom, and before the coachman could get the dishes done up fire had been seen beneath the chandelier, which connected with the building on that side.

The chateau is 15 miles from Asheville as the bird flies, and my well is between 100 and 150 feet in depth, with a pair of moss covered buckets on the inside. These buckets are suspended by means of a chain, which is of course 110 feet or so in length. When one of these moss covered buckets meets the other in the middle of the well, the empty one going down knocks the contents of the full one almost entirely plum out, and so the service is not entirely satisfactory in case of fire.

The flames were now supposed to be slowly eating their way to the wine cellar, where I keep a flagon of mountain dew and a case of colic to offset each other. Heavy volumes of dark smoke were soon emerging from the facade of an escarpment which I had put on the house by a man who learned how to be a carpenter a year ago. He learned by chopping his way out of jail.

By this time one of the moss covered buckets had arrived at the top of the well, but the colored equerry who drew it was so overheated that he had to drink the most of it to resuscitate himself.

When I announced that the fire was in the wine cellar, a neighbor of mine who stood watching the glorious sight jumped into the flames, and his body had never been fully recovered.

At this time one of the ramparts fell, and the whole scene was lighted up for miles around. I began to think rapidly. Still I was perfectly cool. Every one who saw me said that he had never seen a cooler or more collected man. Any one to look at me would not have dreamed that I was thinking.

Suddenly remembering that the chateau was built by an Asheville builder, whose address I will supply at any time, I pushed the house over, and I put the fire out with a pan of milk. Then I tipped it back in place, and bidding good night cheerily to one and all I retired to my slumbers.

The building is heavily insured, and four men and a team have been here a couple of weeks adjusting the loss.

The library was completely gutted, and I barely escaped myself. But in time of danger I care no more for my life than for going to my dinner. The insurance money comes in very handily at this time, and nearly $100 will be put into immediate circulation. It is quite a windfall, as one may say. Five dollars of this amount was allowed for the loss of the library.

An insurance adjuster is one who stands between the insured and immediate wealth. If it were not for the adjuster, the insurance company would soon give way all its money and fetch up in the pothouse. When notice of my loss was sent in, the company wanted to pay me for the house, grounds and barn at once, but the adjuster said, "No; you must not give Mr. Nye all your money, for you would run short and be a vagrant inside of a year."

So the adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.

I proved that my wife was very dangerously ill on the night of the fire, and that her life for three days had been despaired of, and so looking into my great, deep, honest eyes he said: "Some men might say that you had selected this time to become a wealthy widower and skip, but I am not so soured against my fellow men as that. I believe that if the house was set afire some one else did it."

The adjuster came. After awhile I convinced him that I did not set the house afire, and I could see that it was a relief to him, for he was a man who loved to believe in his fellow men.